

SMAT II – Incident Command Systems Post Test

Name _____ Date _____

YOU MUST COMPLETE THIS QUIZ TO RECEIVE CREDIT FOR THE SMAT II TRAINING COURSE

Circle one letter that BEST answers the question.

1. The acronym “MAC” stands for:

- a. Multiagency Coordination System
- b. Multiagency Command System
- c. Military Command System
- d. Mobile Communication System

2. Political and social issues are a concern with a functioning EOC.

- a. True
- b. False

3. In the ICS, the PIO, Safety Officer and CISM/Chaplain would report directly to:

- a. The Commander
- b. The Clinical Operations Officer
- c. The Logistics Chief
- d. The Administration/Finance Officer

4. It is strongly recommended that the Incident Command System only be utilized in large disaster situations with multiple agencies involved.

- a. True
- b. False

5. Part of the Incident Commander's responsibilities include:

- a. Assigning resources
- b. Overseeing Tactical Operations
- c. Taking care of food, water and other provisions for team members
- d. A Only
- e. A and B

6. Clinical Operations, Logistics, Admin/Finance and Planning are all part of the General Staff.

- a. True
- b. False

7. One way to distinguish the difference between a Helispot and a Landing Zone (LZ) is to remember that a Helispot has facilities for the aircraft. i.e. fuel and mechanic services.

- a. True
- b. False

8. In the general ICS plan, Preventative Medicine and the Morgue would fall under:

- a. Admin/Finance
- b. Clinical Operations
- c. Logistics
- d. Planning

9. Agencies working together through their perspective Incident Commanders with a single action plan, and a common objective is referred to as:

- a. Unified Command
- b. Area Command
- c. Incident Command

10. When the ICS is utilized, all management positions must be assigned.

- a. True
- b. False